

Agnes is an MD and qualified Paediatrician who worked in a paediatric Hospital in Paris, France before entering the pharmaceutical industry and then moved to the French Medicines Agency.

In 2000 she joined the European Medicines Agency (EMA) and was responsible for Orphan Medicines, Scientific Advice, the Small & Medium-sized Enterprises Office, and Paediatric Medicines Sector, implementing the EU Regulation on paediatric medicines. In 2013, she became Head/Chair of the Portfolio Board, providing oversight of projects for EMA. Since November 2016, she is also the EMA Head of the International Affairs Division.