

Currently, QA Microbiology and Validation Sr Supervisor and Facility Sterility Assurance Representative, MJ has 16 years industry experience and a strong background in Good Laboratory Practices, Good Manufacturing Practices, Microbial Risk Assessment, Sterilizer Qualifications, Computer System Validations and Environmental Monitoring Performance Qualifications.

Her career began as a Microbiologist, pioneering the laboratory setup of a probiotic feed manufacturing plant in China. She then joined a medical device company as a quality control team leader covering both Microbiology and Chemical Laboratory. Later, she was hired as Microbiology Lab Manager of a pharmaceutical company where she also served as a Plant Hygienist conducting the Microbial risk assessment of the manufacturing process and plant utilities.

MJ has been a resource speaker for ISPE Philippines on Environmental Monitoring and PICS Annex 17 – Parametric Release Module. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Biology major in Microbiology from University of the Philippines (Los Banos).