

Murali has 14 years' experience in Manufacturing, Procurement and Supply in Pharmaceuticals and Nutraceuticals across different product portfolios (Injectables, Medical Devices, API, Health Supplements). Cerecin is a brain health company involved in the development of novel evidence-based therapeutics and products that are designed to target conditions ranging from memory impairment to Alzheimer's disease and other neurological diseases.

He holds a Bachelor of Engineering and Masters of Science degrees in Chemical Engineering, a Master of Business Administration and is a PMP certified professional.