

---

Before joining the Department of Health, Nitin worked in the clinical research & pharmaceutical industry in different therapeutics areas for 10 years and the previous 10 years in medicine.

He received his MBBS from University of Mumbai, MRCS from Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and Masters in Clinical Research Administration from University of Liverpool. Nitin holds a Diploma in Pharmaceutical Medicine and gained his Fellowship in Pharmaceutical Medicine in 2017. In 2018, he completed an executive program in leadership and attained alumni status from Harvard Business School.

Nitin is both AHPRA and GMC registered Physician and Specialist (CCT) in Pharmaceutical Medicine and currently an Honorary Senior Lecturer in Australian National University. He sits on ICH E6 (R3) Expert Working Group, WHO ATC-DDD Expert working group and Chairs the ACCESS Biosimilar working group.