

Nuha has worked in the biopharmaceutical industry for over 25 years, in operations and quality in innovative, generic and CMO sectors. She was previously with Teva Canada and Patheon and since 2014, with Merck KGaA.

She has covered various functions in both local and global roles in Quality Control, Quality Assurance, R&D, Process Development, Technical Project Management, Quality Risk Management, Product Quality Management, External Supplier Quality including CMOs, suppliers and now leading Connected Health.