

In his current role, Richard provides technical support and training to customers related to contamination control for cleanrooms. He is also a frequent industry speaker at industry events such as ISPE and PDA, and co-author of a PDA book chapter.

Richard has 20 years of pharmaceutical industry experience in manufacturing, validation, consultancy and technical support.