

With 15 years of experience in the pharmaceutical industry globally, predominantly in Process, CQV, Process Automation and Project Management, Shanshan has held both Consultant and End User roles. With increasing involvement in the GMP remediation and GMP audit projects, she has been building her compliance knowledge in depth as well as interaction with authorities globally.